

AACOM Council of Librarians
Inaugural Meeting
Thursday, June 24, 2004
Agenda

- 7:30-8:00 a.m. Continental Breakfast
- 8:00-8:30 a.m. Keynote Address (with other AACOM Councils)
“Collaboration: Sharing Our Strengths to Advance Osteopathic Medical Education”, Douglas Wood, D.O., Ph.D., President, AACOM
- 8:30-8:45 am Presentation of the Student DO of the Year Award (sponsored by COSGP)
- 8:45-9:00 am Break
- 9:00-10:00 am Business meeting
1. Introductions of attendees and Steering Committee
 2. Role of COL in AACOM and potential collaboration with other constituent groups (Linda Heun, PhD, AACOM)
 3. Review of Purpose Statement and Bylaws
 4. Review Council representatives
 5. Election of officers
- 10:00-11:45 am Future of OSTMED®
1. Current status
 2. Role of the AOA, AACOM, and ORC (des Anges Crusier, PhD, MPA)
 3. Focused Research Forum on OSTMED® sponsored by the ORC
 - a. Identify attendees: information experts, stakeholders, and funders
 - b. Goals, scope, coverage, and priorities for OSTMED®
 - c. Funding sources, guidance and oversight
 4. Alternative means of providing online access to the osteopathic literature
 - a. Full-text proposal by VCOM
 - b. Collaborative indexing contributed by AACOM libraries
 - c. Commercial purchase of OSTMED®
 5. Resolution from Osteopathic Libraries SIG of Medical Library Association
 6. Recommendation from COL
- 11:45-1:00 pm Lunch Networking with potential interaction with other AACOM Councils
- 1:00-3:15 pm Discussion of areas of concern and collaboration
1. Education and instruction programs
 - a. Library involvement in instruction and support of the medical curriculum
 - b. Identification of student information literacy competencies
 2. Authorized Osteopathic Thesaurus (Cathy Kearns, AACOM)
 - a. Report on current status and maintenance costs
 - b. Other uses for the Thesaurus in organizing osteopathic information
 - c. Implications of the Thesaurus being in SNOMED and the Metathesaurus
 3. Comparative library data
 - a. Library statistics: what data is most useful and why
 - b. Descriptive surveys of services, collections, and local resources

4. Library collections: electronic and print resources
 - a. Clinical point-of-care and EBM information resources
 - b. Electronic resources: databases, journals and books
 - c. Collaborative opportunities: shared purchase, interlibrary loan
 - d. PDA applications and services
 - e. Osteopathic literature: acquisition, cataloging, duplicate exchange

5. Institutional archives
 - a. Preservation of unique osteopathic and institutional materials
 - b. Collaborative preservation opportunities
 - c. Status of AACOM and AOA archives
 - d. Status of the Still National Osteopathic Museum and archives

3:15-3:30 p.m. Break

3:30-4:30 p.m. Presentation on the use of handheld computers by Andy Ganger, President of Campus Mobility (www.campusmobility.com). You are invited to join the Council of Educators in attending this program presented by the Council of Information and Technology