

Established in 1977, NYCOM is the first college of osteopathic medicine in New York State.

Second largest medical school in the country, D.O. or M.D.

More than 4,500 doctors of osteopathic medicine (D.O.s) have graduated from NYCOM.

More than 1,000 students are studying annually at NYCOM to become D.O.s.

One of the most diverse student populations.

Every NYCOM student participates in exciting, challenging residencies.

NYCOM is located on the beautiful, wooded, suburban Old Westbury campus of NYIT, only 22 miles east of New York City on the north shore of Long Island.
