Osteopathic Recognition in 8 Minutes or Less...

Robert A. Cain, DO
ACGME Osteopathic Principles Committee Chair
AODME/AACOM

April 2015
Disclosures

- I have no financial relationships to disclose....
The ACGME Osteopathic Principles Committee

- Created to develop a single set of requirements for osteopathic recognition of GME programs in the single accreditation system
Nomenclature

- Osteopathic Recognition
  - The status conferred upon a program choosing to teach and assess osteopathic principles and practice

- Osteopathic Track
  - A segment or portion of a program with osteopathic recognition designated to teach and assess osteopathic principles and practice

- Osteopathic Principles and Practice
  - The knowledge, skill, and behavior to be taught and assessed in a program with osteopathic recognition
Osteopathic Recognition

- Provides an organized approach to perpetuate the profession’s contributions to healthcare

“Patient care delivered within the context of the four tenets of osteopathic medicine is aligned to patient-centered, high-value care and the needs of our nation’s healthcare system.”
Osteopathic Recognition

There is no ACGME fee associated with Osteopathic Recognition.

- No application fee.
- No additional annual program fee.
- No site visit fee.
Application Process

1. Program Application Submitted in ADS
2. Program automatically receives “Pre-Accreditation”
3. OR application initiated and submitted in ADS
4. OR application reviewed by OPC after program receives Initial Accreditation
Recognition Process

Application
- Reviewed by OPC after program receives “Initial Accreditation”.
- No site visit required.

Initial Recognition
- Conferred after OPC reviews & approves program application.
- Program remains on “Initial Recognition” for 2 years.

Continued Recognition
- Program receives a site visit after 2 years on “Initial Recognition” & is then reviewed by the OPC to determine if it should be moved to “Continued Recognition”.

ACGME
Osteopathic Recognition Program Search

- Program applicants and any interested parties will be able to search for programs with Osteopathic Recognition on the ACGME website.

- There will also be a list of programs that have applied for Osteopathic Recognition available on the ACGME website, similar to the list that will be maintained for programs with “pre-accreditation”
Where Do I Get More Information?

• Tiffany Moss, Executive Director
  Osteopathic Accreditation
    • tmoss@acgme.org

• ACGME Website
  • FAQs
    • Future webinar (June 22, 2015)

• AOA Website
“The success of our effort to create the osteopathic focused learning environment will not be realized because of words on paper, but rather by our choices and actions as we integrate ourselves into the ACGME.”