<sup>4</sup>The number of individual sites at which an osteopathic medical college offers clinical clerkships varies widely. Factors that influence the number of sites used by a college include - the mission of a college (e.g., training physicians for rural primary care), geographic location of the college, size and scope of programs available at the various sites used by the college, student body size, clinical training curriculum integration and evaluation systems, and special relationships between the college and clinical sites.
