

Application

Information

The Senior Leadership Development Program (SLDP) is for individuals in senior leadership positions at U.S. colleges of osteopathic medicine. The program assists new and experienced deans, current, interim, or designated deans, and other identified by their schools as potential future deans to develop and enhance critical leadership and management competencies.

Requirements:

- Completed online application
- CV
- Two letters of recommendation

Agreement

By submitting this application, you confirm that the information contained in the application is accurate and complete. You also agree that if selected for the SLDP, you will participate in all activities and assignments that relate to all phases. Additionally, you understand that failure to complete any assignment or activity or failure to attend a phase may result in dismissal from the SLDP and the loss of tuition.
