Hear these nationally known speakers:

- Patricia Thomas, MD, Curriculum Revision: Why and How do We Get There?
- Frank Papa, DO, PhD, Models of Mind, Competence, and Medical Education & Application of Cognitive- Science Derived Learning Principles in Medical Education
- Elza Mylona, PhD, The Small Group Experience: Strategies to Improve Your Performance as a Facilitator
- Michael Rowane, DO, MS, One Minute Preceptor
- Eric Bauman, PhD, Leveraging Technology in Medical Education
- Diane Birnbaumer, MD, Microteaching and/or Bedside Teaching
- Kevin Krane, MD, Strategies and Tips for Integrating Basic Sciences and Clinical Sciences

The overall conference objective is to provide faculty (both full-time and adjunct) with knowledge, tools and skills that will educate them on curriculum revision and prepare them to teach within an integrated curriculum structure.

This is a one day event. However, the entire program is being repeated a second day to allow clinical staff the opportunity to keep clinics running and release only a portion of their staff each day. So you can pick either August 3 or August 4 to attend.
