

The Leadership Award recognizes AOGME members who have contributed noteworthy leadership and service to the profession and to AOGME within the past five years.

Achievement Criteria

Meritorious achievement in two or more of the following areas:

1. Candidate should have demonstrated exemplary leadership skills and outcomes in the area of osteopathic graduate medical education
2. Candidate should be innovative and creative in osteopathic graduate medical education development
3. Candidate should be supportive and contribute to AOGME

Nomination Form
I WISH TO NOMINATE:
Please type or print clearly

Name _____

Title _____

Please type your responses to the following questions and attach no more than four additional sheets.

1. Describe how this AOGME member has demonstrated exemplary leadership skills and outcomes in the area of osteopathic graduate medical education
2. Describe how this AOGME member has shown to be innovative and creative in osteopathic medical education development
3. Describe how this AOGME member has supported and contributed to AOGME

Submitted by _____ (Please print or type) _____ (Signature)

Organization _____ Title _____

Entry Procedure:

Describe your nominee's accomplishments in detail. Email (scanned original signatures) to aogme@aacom.org by close of business on December 30, 2023.